PRINCIPAL'S REPORT
Don’t forget the 50th Anniversary coming up soon. Get your tickets from the office.

I have been discussing student performance from the first semester with the Administration team and, whilst we are satisfied with the performance of many of our students, it is clear there is room for improvement. I reported on parade on Tuesday that one area that will really pick up their grades is the completion of all assignments to the best of their ability. Some students are handing in their assignment with a “that’ll do” attitude. Another 10 minutes with attention to detail or even a parent to read can make a great difference. All teachers accept and encourage drafts so please encourage your child to do complete them. This is an important time for all students, but especially seniors in terms of their overall results.

The Science Department hosted a wine evening for parents last Tuesday night. It was a top night enjoyed by all. As usual the students thoroughly enjoyed the evening explaining the wine-making processes and giving parents the opportunity to taste their work. Thank you to Ms Robbins and her team.

Our senior students will complete the QCS test next week and I wish all those who complete it good luck. Remember the best advice for students now is to be well rested and in a good frame of mind. Breakfast for the students will be ready from 8.00am in the e-Learning Centre.

Two weeks ago a group of about 100 students who had improved their performance in a subject went to the Friday night Broncos v Parramatta Eels match with some staff and myself. We had an excellent night and thank goes to the Brisbane Broncos for their support of our students.

The District Athletics Carnival was held recently and our students performed well. A number are now off to the interschool finals to try and represent South Coast. Whilst on the topic of athletics Marie Gabril is representing Queensland at the national cross country from Friday in Tasmania. Well done Marie!

I remind parents to speak to their students about appropriate language and smoking. I am suspending students for the use of offensive language and smoking and thank you all for your support on this matter.

Yours sincerely

MR MATT O’HANLON

PARENTS/CARERS NOTICE

- Parents/Carers please be aware that if your child is absent for any reason you must phone the absentee line on 34423760. If for some reasons you haven’t contacted the absentee line, a SMS message is deployed to the 1st contact person from student’s data - please reply. We attempt to do our very best in communicating with the information we have.
- Many students are using their mobile phones to ring parents to get permission to leave. Unless someone from the office has actually spoken to the parent/carer, then the student will not be signed out.
- Please understand that during class time it is very difficult to get messages through to students. Please keep messages to emergencies only. If you need to drop off lunches, money or cooking etc, office staff will endeavour to locate your child. However sometimes with outside school/classroom activities, this is not always possible.
- If you wish your child to be signed out, please write a note with student’s name, date, time out and parent’s or carer’s signature which is to be handed into the office in the morning so passes can be arranged. Please be aware of school break times.
- Students can be contacted on their mobiles only during the lunch times (listed below).

A reminder that mobile phones must be turned off during class times.

MUSIC CAMP 2013 - CAMP DREWE LENNOX HEAD
Recently, our music students headed off to our annual camp which was once again held at the beautiful Camp Drewe, in Lennox Head. This year, our camp can only be described as perfect; perfect location, perfect weather, perfect food and perfect students! All up our bands and ensembles were involved in just over 20 hours of rehearsals over the 4 days, with a lot of fun thrown in as well! Our annual Bad Taste Night once again lived up to its name! We can’t wait to share our hard work with audiences at our end of year events. A big thank-you to Mr Farmer for all of his efforts and assistance (and ability to make us cringe!) while on camp, and also to Mrs Little for working with the Vocal Group. Thank-you also to our amazing ex-students, mostly up and coming Music teachers themselves, for making my job so easy at camp this year! I was very impressed with the behaviour and conduct of all of our students while on camp, and this is a credit to our fantastic group of Year 12’s, who continue to prove to be excellent role models for our younger students to look up too.

RUGBY LEAGUE NEWS

Flagstone College visited Beenleigh SHS bringing 3 Rugby League teams on Thursday August 15th. The first game was the Open Girls. A large number of Beenleigh students were there to watch an entertaining game. Both sides showed a willingness to get physical and the crowd appreciated their commitment. In a close game, Flagstone were able to secure a close victory with 3 tries to 1. In the Boys Under 15 clash, Beenleigh notched up a win. Beenleigh were able to dominate for large sections of the game. In the Opens, Beenleigh asserted their dominance by getting the ball to edges. The Eagles were too strong for Flagstone running in a dozen unanswered tries. Beenleigh fielded a Year 11 team and have taken some promising first steps. It has been great to see over a dozen boys committing themselves to 6.30am gym. Keep up the good work. Beenleigh will return the favour to Flagstone by taking 3 teams to play Flagstone at Greenbank on Thursday September 5th.

CAREER HUNTERS APP
New smartphone app helps young people with jobs and career opportunities

The Career Hunter app, developed from a young person’s perspective, is a simple way for young people and their parents to explore career opportunities.

Believed to be the first career exploration app of its kind, it provides information about occupations and industries, job descriptions, training and qualification requirements, and job vacancies. It makes tangible links from school to the world of work and highlights the industries were skills are most needed.

The Department of Education, Training and Employment; The Smith Family; Regional Development, Australia; Busy at Work and Group Training Australia worked together on the development of the app — now available from the Apple app store.

YEAR 11 ENABLE LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

16 potential 2014 leaders attended a leadership conference run in conjunction with Youth without Borders and ENABLE at Loganlea State High School. Any student that was interested in finding out more about ‘what is leadership’ was invited to attend.

Students were exposed to a variety of talented leaders and mentors including 16 year old Alyysa Azar who plans to conquer Mt Everest in 2014. They were involved in a panel session where they were able to ask questions in relation to how leadership can make a difference in their school. Students also participated in a video station to record their response to “YOLO – so what are you going to do about it”. Their responses to the question, ‘If you could change the world what you would change’ will be edited by a video producer and distributed to all ENABLE schools in Logan.

Overall, this was an excellent day to start to spark student ideas for 2014 at Beenleigh SHS and prepare them for their exciting leadership pathway that awaits them.

What the students thought:

- “It was a fantastic experience for me to see what leadership involves at Beenleigh SHS as I am new to Australia”, Cecelia Liu
- “I liked the values that we were taught and the speakers shared some great messages”, Jay Lealali
- “I got inspiration and motivation to be lead people in the right directions”, Emma Taufa

PARENTING INFORMATION

This week, Beenleigh SHS has become a member of Parenting Ideas. As a member, the school receives updates and newsletters that help to support families regarding ideas and support for parents when raising teenagers. Mr Michael Grose writes in weekly newspapers and appears on Television which centres on a range of topics that parents deal with on a daily basis. This week’s message is about trusting your instincts. We are also planning to set up a parenting blog on our school website to support our parents in the future. There will be more information in our newsletter next week.

CHRISTOPHER TAMWOY - CLOSING THE GAP

Chris Tamwoy (Year 12) was down at the NYILA (National Indigenous Youth Leadership Academy) conference last week with 50 other young Indigenous people. As part of their discussions, they decided that one of the most important issues was to close the gap in Indigenous education. The group has set up a Facebook page “Support us to close the gap”. I’m sure Chris would appreciate as much support as possible so if you can find the time to ‘like’ the page and support these guys that’d be great. I believe he has a meeting with the Assistant Chief Police Commissioner this week some time and he also mentioned he would be meeting the mayor about this issue. So if you run into Chris on your travels, please ask him about it…..he’s also getting pictures to upload to the Facebook page with people ‘pledging to close the gap’. HEALTH NURSE NEWS

Anxiety:

Anxiety is a normal feeling that people have when they are faced with something that could be dangerous or difficult, embarrassing or stressful. Exams, job interviews, talking in front of a group, or learning a new skill (such as driving) all make people feel anxious. What are the signs of anxiousness? Your pulse rate might go up, you may have a disturbing feeling in your tummy (‘butterflies’ in the tummy) and you could feel sweaty.

Anxiety disorders:

Usually when the task or event that is causing the stress is over, the feelings of anxiety go away. When these feelings go on and on, and start to get in the way of a normal life, it may be a symptom of an anxiety disorder. The symptoms that go with high levels of anxiety fit into several different patterns or ‘types’ of anxiety disorder. Working out if you have one of the types of disorder can help you then work out the most useful way of trying to manage the anxiety.

Generalised Anxiety disorder:

The main symptom of this disorder is excessive and persistent worry, causing feelings of being keyed up all the time, being easily tired, having difficulty concentrating, irritability, muscle tension and sleep problems. Young people may worry about sport or school performance, including exams, so much that they are not able to do well.

Panic disorder:

People with this pattern of feelings experience great anxiety (panic) in situations where most people would not be afraid, such as being in a crowd or on an escalator. They can have many physical symptoms such as:
- Feeling faint or dizzy
- Having a rapid heart rate
- Sweating
- Chest pain
- Blushing
- Having difficulty breathing
- Abdominal pain (and diarrhoea)
- Fear that the attack will lead to them dying or totally losing control

When the panic has gone, there is an ongoing fear that the panic will come back.

Fear of a panic attack can lead them to stop doing things that might trigger a panic attack, such as going outside or going to certain places where they have had a panic attack.

Young people who get panic attacks may have had trouble with fear when they were away from their parents when they were younger (separation anxiety).
